

A Pupil Barrister at 2 Hare Court and an Ann Goddard Scholar of Gray's Inn, Kawsar is a transferring solicitor to the Bar from Clifford Chance LLP and Allen & Overy LLP where he specialised in Financial Services Regulatory Law. He grew up on a council estate in East London, attended a local comprehensive and was the first in his family to go to university.

He graduated with a First-Class Honours degree in Law from the LSE in 2012, before reading for the BCL at Oxford (OCIS Scholar) and the LLM at Harvard Law School (Fulbright Scholar).

Kawsar is currently a Social Mobility Ambassador for the Law Society of England & Wales, a Governor at Morpeth Secondary School in Bethnal Green and a Trustee of Toynbee Hall which is home to the oldest continuously surviving free legal advice centre in the world. In 2009, Kawsar was a Global Fellow of the Prime Minister.
