

Aimee is currently a Third Six Pupil at Charter Chambers practising in Criminal and Regulatory Law.

Aimee completed her degree at the University of Liverpool in 2017 and the BPTC at BPP Manchester in 2018.

Along with her position on the Social Mobility Committee for the CBA, Aimee also sits on the Wellbeing at the Bar Committee for the Bar Council and acts as Pre-Pupillage Officer for the Middle Temple Young Barristers Association. Aimee completed all her education in state schools and was the first in her family to attend University.

Aimee received the Harmsworth Scholarship from Middle Temple in 2017 along with two further Scholarships from her BPTC provider. Since being called to the Bar she has received an additional Pupillage Award from Middle Temple and two Bursary Awards for 'Excellence in Advocacy' from the CBA.

Aimee is passionate about, and committed to, ensuring the Bar is comprised of a diverse range of individuals from all backgrounds.
