

*The Criminal Bar Association Of England
& Wales & The Kalisher Scholarship Trust
Present:*

The Kalisher Essay Competition 2012

1st Prize - £5,000 2nd Prize - £2,000

"Is there an imbalance in the extradition arrangements between the UK and US? If so, how might the rights of UK citizens be better protected?"

Entry Conditions

- Maximum word length is 2,000 words on above topic (exc. reasonable footnotes)
- Prize is open to all pupils in criminal sets in England and Wales
- Pupils must be sponsored by their chambers to enter at a cost of £100 per pupil with no limit on entries.
- Cheques to be made out to the Kalisher Scholarship
- Chambers must indicate an intention to compete for the prize and provide sponsorship by Friday 29th July
- Essays (showing an alias) must be sent electronically to the Secretary by 1600 Friday 6th August
- Prizes will be awarded by this year's speaker at the Kalisher Lecture in October

All enquiries regarding entry to be made to:

Max Hardy

Secretary to the Kalisher Scholarship

Email: max.hardy@9bedfordrow.co.uk