

“The scheme (QASA) will be up and running before the introduction of price competitive tendering, and will cover publicly funded criminal legal aid litigants in the first instance. Such a system will be essential when the scheme becomes subject to competitive tendering.”